

Offer

What kind of services the company offers?

Bookkeeping

We offer full accounting services, including preparation of financial and stock exchange reports, tax settlements and all activities covering our clients' obligations to offices and institutions.

Staff and payrolls

We provide comprehensive support for payroll calculations and human resources administration and prepare legal declarations and reports as required by law.

The scope of the proposed services may also include assistance in the payment of wages to employees 'or relevant institutions.

Tax consultancy

Comprehensive assistance in solving tax problems and rationalization of liabilities.

Legal advice

Mergers and acquisitions, contracts, relations between employers and employees, functioning in a competitive market - all these aspects of business require skillful consideration of legal issues. Our lawyers are experienced experts combining knowledge of law with experience in its application in business.